a) Velmi zpěvně a naprostým legatem melodii; doprovod středních hlasů lehce, non legato, a dbáti vyrovnanosti obou rukou, tak aby z tónů  rozdělených do pravé i levé, žádný zvláště nevystupoval. Prvou čtvrt basovou ne sice tuze marcato, ale zvučně.

b) Nechá-li se basový tón ležeti, je možno v těchto taktech vyměnit pedál, což tu zní lépe:  a

First system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The music includes a melodic line with a slur and a fermata over the final note, and a bass line with chords. Fingerings are indicated as 5, 4, 3, 4, 5.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It includes the instruction riten. (ritardando) and a tempo dolce a). The dynamics are marked p (piano). The system concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Third system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It includes the instruction simile. The system concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Fourth system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Fifth system of musical notation, concluding the piece. It includes the instruction smorzando (morendo) and the dynamic marking pp (pianissimo). The system concludes with a double bar line, a repeat sign, and a final asterisk.

a) Dolce týče se nejenom barvy melodie, nýbrž všeho výrazu, který v celé třetí části má být ještě intimnější, nežli v první; také veškeré dynamiky, která bude o odstín tlumenější.
